

If you're looking for Perfectus, you have come to the right place! This is our new website...

We are in the process of upgrading our systems. If you are existing customer, we will contact you with your new login details as soon as we have our new support systems fully in place (for technical reasons we have had to transition sooner than expected). In the meantime, please contact us using support@perfectustechnology.com and we will provide you with the resources you require.

If you're new to our products and services, please look around. We'll be adding content as we go. Any questions, please contact us using sales@perfectustechnology.com.

Perfectus is a unique document process automation technology that provides a new, cost effective way to put an organization's business content and process to work.

Documents continue to be the currency that drives commerce. The final output of many transactional documents embodies the business processes and intellectual capital of all organizations. By automating the creation and delivery of documents, organizations can gain measurable competitive advantage and increased productivity.
